of triple their value being of sufficient size to work, and showing the character and doculty of their sizes.

One of the best evidences of the success of this meth of of breeding is deduced from the fact that M. W. Dunham, of Wayne, Ill., the greatest importer of braft horses in America, and from whose stables have gone out nearly all the pure bred Percheron statilens how in oresiding upon Western ranges, and who has had the benefit of the experience of all those who have been breeding from stallions bought of him during the past ten peers, has engaged in the business with the Messes, Studebaker, of South Bred, Ind., and John A. Witter, of Denver, Col., and invested half a miflion delines in ranges and stock. The present year they are breeding about 2,000 mares to all of the finest imported Percheron stallions. The uniformity heavity and size of the collaproduced from the range mares and the imported sizes has altracted the aftention of many of the progressive of sections of ac. West, notably the Hou. M. E.
